

The Delmore “Buddy” Daye Learning Institute (DBDLI) is a not-for-profit organization dedicated to excellence in Africentric education. We are proud of the contributions that African Nova Scotians, including many Acadia alumni, have made to the history, heritage and culture of our province and we are pleased to partner with Acadia University in celebrating the contributions of a few of these ‘Notable Nova Scotians’.

The following excerpt about Viola Desmond is taken from The Times of African Nova Scotians, Volume I. I invite you to visit our website to learn more about the DBDLI, The Times, and our other valuable teaching resources.

Sincerely,

Sylvia Parris, CEO
